

HONOR CODE

PRINTED SUMMER 2022

LOYOLA
UNIVERSITY MARYLAND

MISSION

The Honor Code states that all students of the Loyola community have been equally entrusted by their peers to conduct themselves honestly on all academic assignments. Our goal is to foster a trusting atmosphere that is ideal for learning. In order to achieve this goal, every student must be actively committed to this pursuit and its responsibilities, and is therefore called to be active in the governing of the community's standards. Thus, all students have the right, as well as the duty, to expect honest work from their colleagues. From this, we students will benefit and learn from the caring relationships that our community trustfully embodies.

The students of this University understand that accepting collective and individual responsibility for the ethical welfare of their peers exemplifies a commitment to the community. Students who submit materials that are the product of their own mind demonstrate respect for themselves and the community in which they study. These students

F. Duplicate Submission- The submission of work (in whole or in part) that has been submitted in a prior or concurrent class without advance consent of the professor(s) assigning the work.

G. Failure to Report a Violation - The knowing failure to report any student who has committed a breach of this Code.

Students unsure whether they have witnessed an Honor +* + . «Code to the Faculty Affairs Committee.

Faculty members may also be nominated by a student or faculty member, in which case they must submit a signed application with a statement in order to be eligible for election. The Faculty Affairs Committee will appoint three faculty members per year to two year terms. Faculty members may be nominated as many times as they wish to accept the position.

B. At least one faculty moderator must attend each hearing.

C. The faculty moderators will be responsible for representing the College Faculty on the issue of academic integrity. This responsibility will include providing input during hearings and training of the Student Honor Council.

5. Administrator Advisor

The Assistant Vice President for Student Development, or another administrator selected by the Vice President for Student Development, will serve as an advisor to the Honor Council. This person's office will m.7 (e)-6is i

Accused students must conduct themselves in a respectful and honest manner while at the hearing. If the student fail / to inform the Honor Council that 0 $! 5 « . ! unable or decideinform testimony of the accused student. The accused will b

Honor Probation may include the prevention of participation in one or more of the following activities: sports teams, clubs, leadership positions, or any other activity that may impact a student's studies. Students placed on Honor Probation will be allowed to maintain any job and to attend social events held by the University. The duration of the Probation will be designated by the Hearing Council and can last up to one year from the time of imposition.

The Honor Council may decide on a sanction other than Honor Probation, such as civility hours, a warning, or a rewrite of a particular assignment.

1.2 The steps in filing an appeal are as follows:

- a. The appeal must be submitted in writing and received by the appropriate dean no later than four business days from the receipt

